

124. LET THE PEOPLE SING, THE WOLFE TONES

D A D
For those who are in love there's a song that's warm and tender.
G D A
For those who are oppressed in song you can protest.
D A D
So liberate your minds And give your soul expression.
G D A D
Open up your hearts, I'll sing for you this song.

D
Let the people sing their stories and their songs
G D
and the music of their native land
D Bm
their lullabies and battlecries and songs of hope and joy
A A7
sod join us hand in hand
D G D
All across this ancient land throughout the test of time
Bm A D
It was music that kept their spirits free those songs of yours and mine

D A D
It was back in ancient times, the bard would tell his stories
G D A
Of heroes and of villains, of chieftains in the glen.
D A D
Through passages of time with passion and with glory
G D A D
To those who've gone before I'll sing for you this song

D A D
Our voices sing this song the music lives forever
G D A
In the valleys, in the mountains, in the hills and in the glens.
D A D
The music did survive through famine and oppression.
G D A D
To the generations gone, I'll sing for you this song
